LiUNA Local 183 Hosts Annual Scholarship Trust Fund Ceremony

Labourers' International Union of North America (LiUNA) Local 183 awards 129 scholarships at its 27th annual award ceremony.

TORONTO – Labourers' International Union of North America (LiUNA) Local 183 hosted its 27th Annual Scholarship Ceremony, recognizing 129 exceptional students who will receive financial support for their post-secondary education.

Every year, the LiUNA Local 183 Scholarship Trust Fund provides scholarships to the children and grandchildren of Local 183 members and retirees, highlighting the importance of access to higher education and the role it plays in building strong, resilient communities. This year's recipients represent a wide range of academic interests and career paths, reflecting the diversity, talent, and drive of LiUNA Local 183 families across all areas of LiUNA Local 183.

"Today marks a special milestone. On the 27th anniversary of the LiUNA Local 183 Scholarship Trust Fund, we've distributed $1,032,000 in scholarships," said Jack Oliveira, Business Manager of Local 183. "It's an honour to help our members and their families pursue their educational aspirations."

Since its inception in 2006, the LiUNA Local 183 Scholarship Trust Fund has granted over 1,100 amounting to over $10.5 million in scholarships. Over the years, the fund has continued to grow both in scope and impact, reinforcing Local 183's ongoing commitment to investing in the next generation.

"This is what our union is built on, looking out for one another and building a better future for those who come after us," Oliveira added. "Our members work hard every day to build our cities. Tonight is about investing in their children and grandchildren, and the futures they're building for themselves."
